I watch you from afar, a dangerous game you play my foolish friend.

ask yourself this and you will find the truth.

why is Randy retiring and moving out of the country?

why is Joe M selling his gallery and moving out of the country?

why is Joe O quietly selling his house and looking to get out of the country? why are the rest creating a false history in parallel with the current in their contact with you?

shall I go on?

you my good friend will take the fall for this fraud, and if things go wrong, you will end up in the fuckn meat grinder. think about it Ugo, the meat grinder if you are lucky.

Moniz is the other joke in this, you and Michael are the fools being set up for the fall.

I know of the folks you play with. we all know, and now we watch you go down.

you have know idea of who you are in bed with Ugo, the time to get out has now passed, and the hurt is about to be heaved upon you.

good bye and good luck.

the fraud is OVER.
